

NEW STUDENT PROFILE – This student profile gives us a starting point for becoming acquainted with your child. We will be better able to support your child by having some basic information and a glimpse into your child's history and personality. We are also interested in starting a conversation with you about your child and family. Please use this opportunity to help us support your child's development and experience at MSYC. Please attach any additional or related information.

Child's Name _____ Sex _____

Child's Date of Birth _____ Place of Birth _____

Is your child adopted? If so, at what age? _____

Has your child attended any school/daycare previously? _____
(name of previous school/daycare)

1. Parent/Guardian's name, employer and description of occupation _____

2. Other Parent/Guardian's name, employer and description of occupation _____

If either parent has been divorced, widowed, or remarried, at what age was the child? _____

Names and ages of brothers and sisters _____

Check the adjectives you feel are most descriptive of your child.

- | | | | |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| ☐ Timid | ☐ Cooperative | ☐ Sensitive | ☐ Independent |
| ☐ Sociable | ☐ Verbal | ☐ Nervous | ☐ Active |
| ☐ Passive | ☐ Obedient | ☐ Quiet | ☐ Confident |
| ☐ Aggressive | ☐ Unique | ☐ Dependent | ☐ Fearful |

Does your child play with children other than siblings/relatives? _____

How does she/he get along with other children? _____

How does she/he get along with adults? _____

What independent activities interest your child most both indoors and outdoors? _____

Which is your child's dominant hand? _____

Does your child like to dress herself/himself? _____

What activities do you share with your child on a regular basis? (meals, stories, play, etc.) _____

How (or from whom) did you hear about our Montessori school? _____

Have you read any books, magazines articles, etc. on the Montessori philosophy? Would you be interested in some suggested materials? _____

What aspects of the Montessori school, classroom, or program appeal to you in particular? _____

What do you expect your child to gain from our Montessori school as compared to another pre-school? _____

What type of communications between the school and the family are you anticipating?

May your child have all snacks? ____ If not, please list all restrictions and reasons (personal preference, intolerance, or allergy.) You may be requested to bring special supplies. If your child is vegetarian, please also specify if he/she is vegan. _____

Please list and describe any birthmarks or scars on child's body _____

What children's diseases, serious illness, or serious accidents has your child had? _____

Does your child have known allergies? ____ If so, What? _____

Must physical activities be restricted for health reasons? _____

If so, describe why and how. _____

Please list any areas of development you feel your child has struggled with (physical, intellectual, social, emotional). _____

Please list any skills you feel your child could use additional support in developing. _____

What are some of the strengths you feel your child possesses? _____

What is your child's bedtime? ____ How soon does your child fall asleep? _____

What time does your child usually awake? _____

Does your child use the toilet independently? ____ Partially ____ Completely

How does your child ask to use bathroom? _____

Does your child have any fear, such as dark storms, sirens, people, animals, etc.? _____

How does your child calm him/herself when upset? How do you help calm your child when he/she is upset? _____

Are there any experiences we should know about to better meet the need of your child? _____

Is there anything else about your child (medical, physical, emotional, or other) of which we need to be aware? Please note if he/she works with any types of therapists. _____

Thank you for taking the time to share with us about your child and family. We are aware that some of the information may be sensitive, and we will treat our communications with you in confidence. We hope that the Montessori School for Young Children's teachers, staff and community will become part of the resources you use to support your most important role, as your child's parent. Please consider our doors open and this as an opening to a dialogue about your child.